

There should be NO scrapping or relaxing of media-ownership rules. To do so will encourage more mergers and consolidations of the media which will harm our democracy. Already there is too much media consolidation. There should be much more publicity on this issue. No FCC decision should be made without full public disclosure and discussion.